

Wonderful Things Happen For Those Who Believe

The young pregnant Mary visits her elderly expectant cousin, Elizabeth. Two women with unborn children in their wombs come together to talk perhaps about their joys, hopes, dreams and fears. They come to be with each other in their time of need. And, during this visit Elizabeth speaks these lovely words to Mary: Of all women you are the most blessed, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.... Yes, blessed is she who believed that the promise made her by the Lord would be fulfilled.

Throughout the Gospel we see how wonderful things happen for those who believe. Time and time again the Lord blesses those who come to him in faith: the prayer of the centurion is answered (Lk. 7:9-10); the sins of the woman are forgiven (Lk. 7:50); the sick woman is healed (Lk. 8:48); the lepers are cleansed (Lk. 17:19); the sight of the blind beggar is restored (Lk. 18:42).

However, some people can be misled to think that with faith everything would be easy. In fact, the opposite is true. Things are not always easy just because of faith, but rather faith in God helps us to hope, to persevere, to struggle and to trust that ultimately something wonderful will happen for ourselves and for others.

Mary is indeed most blessed because she not only believes, but also acts on her faith in the Almighty, who works marvels for her. Her going in haste to visit her cousin shows us how to translate 300 Thomson Road, Singapore 307653 faith from thoughts and feelings into actions and good deeds. She receives the good news and she conceives the Word of God in her through the Holy Spirit. Almost immediately she goes out to share it with Elizabeth.

On one occasion a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to Jesus: Blessed is the womb that bore and the breasts that nursed you! Jesus' reply was, Blessed rather those who hear the Word of God and obey it! (Lk. 11:27-28). In saying this, Jesus extols his own mother and holds her up as an example for all us to imitate. She is the one who heard and obeyed and acted on the Word of God in her life. This is the reason we take Mary as our model of faith and discipleship in Jesus, her Son.

Christmas started with Mary. She gave birth to Jesus in the little town of Bethlehem. Now, each of us is asked to do the same. We are to make Christ alive and present in the world. Christ has to born again and again in us and through us. So, like Mary, we have to first listen to the Word. Then, we have to allow the Holy Spirit to overshadow us and plant the Word in our hearts. Next, we need to nurture the Word as it grows inside us until it becomes our life and the Word becomes flesh in us. Finally, may we who believe in Jesus as our Lord be blessed to see the wonderful things God has in store for us this Christmas and in the New Year.
